PARKING METERS IN OPERATION THURSDAY

15-CENT HOUR BOOST SOUGHT BY CIO OF GM

Auto Workers Council Sticks To Demands; Meet Again Today

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, April 23—The CIO Auto Workers Council voted unanimously today to demand from the corporation a straight 15-cent hourly wage increase without any strings attached.

General Motors had turned down the 15-cent union proposal Tuesday night. The UAW's top negotiators will take the council's ultimatum back to another conference with the corporation starting at 2 p. m. (EST).

Urged By Reuther
Rejection of General Motors' latest offer of 11 1/2 cent hourly wage hike and an additional 3 1/2 cents for six annual holidays pay came in a voice vote by the national council after President Walter P. Reuther had strongly recommended that action.

In a speech the red-haired Reuther reiterated the auto workers' demand for a straight 15-cent increase without General Motors "telling us how we should spend it."

A union announcement said the national council will meet again at 8 tonight and will be ready to consider any proposal that may develop from the afternoon negotiating session with GM.

Two Men Injured When Car Upsets

Two were injured at 10:15 a. m. today when a car driven by Paul Clapsaddle, 22, of R. D. 5, Lisbon, overturned in a field off the Lisbon-Lesoma road, state highway patrolmen reported.

Youth Kills Two Officers In Gun Battle

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, April 23—A 23-year-old youth shot two policemen to death in a street corner gun battle early today.

The officers killed were Sgt. Samuel Hewitt, 47 and James Quigley, 35.

A detective officer said the youth identified himself as William Halliwell and that he was the adopted son of a Northwestern university professor.

The spokesman said the youth, who had four gun wounds, stated his mother was divorced from Dr. Alfred I. Halliwell, former professor of anthropology at the University of Pennsylvania and now at Northwestern university.

The shooting followed a wild race through North Philadelphia streets as two patrol cars chased Halliwell in what Sgt. John Creedon said was a stolen car.

In Chicago, Dr. Halliwell said he was "too shocked" to discuss the shooting.

"I have not seen him for some time," he said.

Hospital attaches described the youth's condition as "very poor."

Creedon said the youth is an escapee from a private school for delinquents at Stateburg, N. Y.

The police sergeant said he received a report of a stolen car and dispatched two one-man patrol cars to the scene.

One of the cars picked up Sgt. Hewitt and gave chase.

The other car joined in the pursuit and when the car Creedon said was stolen was forced to halt behind a bus blocking its path, he stated that Halliwell fired at the two patrol cars.

Hewitt was killed by a bullet through the chest and Quigley, 35, in the other car was killed by a shot through the neck.

New England Town's Trial At Price Cuts Big Success

(By Associated Press)
NEWBURYPORT, Mass., April 23—A New England grocery chain today slashed prices 30 percent and a half-dozen other communities prepared to join with this city in "roll back" prices.

The Clover Farm chain—128 independently-owned stores in Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire—announced effective immediately the price cut on 150 items.

Buyers response to a general 10 percent price cut in Newburyport, where the movement originated yesterday, sent observers from other cities away enthusiastic about taking similar steps to combat inflation.

Merchants in Leominster—a central Massachusetts city of 23,000—announced tomorrow they would inaugurate a three-day experiment known as "devaluation days" with a general 10 percent cut in prices.

Merchants of neighboring Amesbury voted unanimously last night to adopt the "Newburyport plan" after observers reported that the first day of the experiment appeared "highly successful."

Portsmouth, N. H., businessmen, who also sent a delegation to Newburyport yesterday—the first day of the experiment—took steps to obtain price cut pledges which would put the program in operation in that ship-building city.

Others Impressed
Observers from other communities, including the heavily-populated industrial city of Lowell, said they were impressed with the plan and would make favorable reports to their merchants.

Under the local program, more than 90 percent of the retail merchants agreed to slash prices 10 percent in a 10-day experiment and were pledged not to buy supplies from wholesalers who would not grant similar reductions.

Biggest—and much better than average—demand on the first day was for men's furnishings and automobile supplies, merchants reported.

They said that the full effects of the experiment would not be known, however, "until the weekend" as Tuesday is a normally quiet day.

Newburyport stores reported their sales were up from 10 to 46 percent over normal Tuesday's business, with automobile accessories showing the biggest gain.

Department store sales were up 20 to 25 percent; food 15 to 20 percent; clothing 25 to 30 percent; jewelry and hardware 10 to 15 percent.

LONG-RANGE HOME PLAN IS APPROVED

Senate Banking Committee Backs Program To Encourage Building

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 23—The senate banking committee approved 7 to 6 today a long-range housing bill designed to encourage construction of 15,000,000 homes by 1958.

Senator Buck (R-Del.) told reporters the committee deadlocked, 6 to 6, on the first vote and had to telephone Senator Maybank (D-SC), who was on an official visit to the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Md., to break the tie. Maybank voted with the majority.

The senate passed a similar bill during the last session of congress, but the measure was shelved in the house. Senators Wagner (D-NY), Ellender (D-La) and Taft (R-O) sponsored both bills.

Cost Is Estimated
Buck estimates the cost of the program to the federal government at about $7,500,000,000 over a 45-year period.

This bill provides for aiding the private housing industry "to make its full contribution toward an economy of maximum employment, production and purchasing power."

A policy statement in the bill declares: "The general welfare and security of the nation . . . requires a production of residential construction and related community development sufficient to remedy the serious cumulative housing shortage, to eliminate slums and blighted areas, and to realize as soon as feasible the goal of a decent home and suitable living environment for every American family."

Draws Opposition
Among provisions opposed by many private builders is one authorizing construction of 500,000 public housing units in the first four years after enactment of the bill.

On this part of the program, the federal government would subsidize states and local communities at the rate of $26,400,000 each year for four years.

The federal grant for the next 41 years would amount to about $105,000,000 annually.

On private construction, purchasers would be required to make a down payment of only five percent on homes costing up to $5,000. Insured loans would cover 95 percent of the cost at four percent interest over a period of 30 years.

Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio voted against the bill.

Forgotten Children Discussed by Curry For Quota Meeting

Citing many case histories, M. A. Curry of Lisbon, county welfare director, gave a most interesting talk on "Columbiana County's Forgotten Children" when he was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Quota club Tuesday evening in the Memorial building.

The speaker was presented by Miss Erma Ramseyer, President Laura Conrad presided.

Officers for the coming fiscal year were installed in a beautiful candle-light ceremony, with Miss Ella Stapp, a past president, mistress of rites.

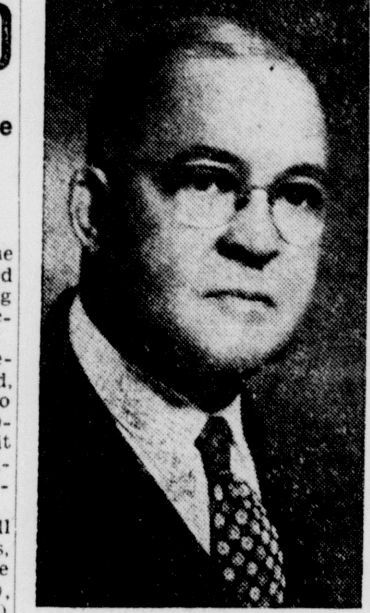

Officers are: President, Mrs. Laura Conrad; first vice president, Miss Hazel Linn; second vice president, Mrs. Helen Brumbaugh; secretary, Miss Mona McArthur; treasurer, Miss Eleanor McMurray.

Directors for one year, Mrs. Goldie Schwartz and Miss Ray Heckert; two years, Mrs. Nell Bloom and Mrs. Ray Pearce.

New members initiated by President Conrad were: Miss Lillian Schroeder, Mrs. Helen Eberwein, Mrs. Winifred Hill, Mrs. Nina Jones and Miss Rose McLaughlin.

Invitations were accepted for installation parties from Cleveland at 4:30 p. m. Sunday in the Lake Shore hotel, and Youngstown at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, May 3, in the Y. W. C. A.

DRAFT EVADER SENT TO JAIL

Rubinstein, Convicted By Jury, Also Must Pay Fine of $50,000

NEW YORK, April 23—Serge Rubinstein, 39, Russian-born international financier, was sentenced to two and one-half years in prison and fined $50,000 on his conviction of draft law violation.

Rubinstein and two co-defendants were convicted last night after a jury deliberated seven hours.

Chief Assistant U. S. Attorney Irving Saypol recommended a sentence of five years and fines totaling $50,000 against Rubinstein.

Rubinstein was indicted on Jan. 30, 1946, on charges of falsely representing his non-liability for military service to a local draft board, on Feb. 2, 1943.

Allen Gordon Foster, former director of the Panhandle Producing and Refining Company, and James C. Hart, former president of the Taylorcraft Aviation Corp., were convicted of making false statements and conspiring to aid Rubinstein evade military service.

Rubinstein pleaded slightly when he heard the verdict of the all-male jury, which had deliberated seven hours. The verdict of guilty on all counts was returned at 10:10 p. m. last night.

'Date With Judy' Is Junior Play For Thursday, Friday

The delightful three-act comedy, "A Date With Judy," the Salem High Junior class presentation, will be given Thursday and Friday evenings under the direction of Miss Edith Cope, dramatics coach.

The play was shown this afternoon to Junior High pupils, with regular performances the final two days at 8:15 p. m. in the High school auditorium.

Student directors for the production are Lode Barnard, senior, and Sally Lou Zeigler and Miriam Bauman, juniors.

Marjorie Hanna will portray the title role in the play, with Lee Ward, Joan Shepard, Bob Coppock and Jack Wilson in supporting leads.

CITY BEGINS ENFORCEMENT IN MORNING

Violators To Be Ticketed By Police; 9-Month Tryout Starts

Have those nickels and pennies handy—for parking meters officially go into operation in Salem at 8 a. m. Thursday.

Safety Director C. E. Phillips announced that temporary arrangements have been made to transfer Patrolman Martin Lutsch and Howard Forney to the meter work starting tomorrow.

Phillips has employed Lloyd Stackhouse as a temporary patrolman, to serve on the night force under Capt. James Hassey, and may acquire additional help on the night force so that Forney and Lutsch can perform the meter enforcement.

Two-Hour Parking Range
According to the new ordinance recently passed by city council, motorists are now limited to a maximum of two hours parking on the downtown streets where meters are installed and must deposit either pennies or nickels to purchase the amount of time desired.

Periodic check-ups of the meters will be made throughout the day and those showing the violation flag, a red indicator that shows in the meter window when time has elapsed, will be ticketed.

The ordinance stipulates a minimum of $1 fine for overtime parking. It also calls for heavy penalties including the cost of a new meter, on persons guilty of defacing or damaging the instruments.

Ample space has been allowed for parking at all 174 places meters have been installed. For parallel parking officials have allowed 22 feet per car while in diagonal parking spots on S. Broadway 11-foot stalls have been allowed.

Observe Rules, Motorists Warned
Officials request that motorists be sure they park within the space allowed at each meter.

Collections of the coins in the meters probably will be made once or twice each week. Patrolman Forney has been instructed in meter maintenance work and will keep the instruments in working order.

Collections to date, without enforcement, netted $330.90. City Auditor Karl Webster said today.

Meters have been installed on E. State st., from N. Elmworth ave. just past the intersection of State and S. Lincoln ave., and on S. Elmworth ave., from Penn ave. and S. Broadway as far south as E. Pershing st. They have been installed on N. Lincoln ave. north to Sugartree alley from State st.

Operation Simple
To operate a meter all a motorist must do is place the desired coin, either pennies or nickels, (dimes will not register) in the slot on the sidewalk side of the meter.

The instruments will accept pennies in intervals of 12 minutes per penny up to two hours. Nickels will register up to two hours at 60 minutes per nickel.

The meters were installed by the Karpack Corp. of Cincinnati on a nine-month trial basis. The city pays $4 a meter monthly rental and at the end of that time may reject or purchase the meters with the rental payments applying on the total cost.

Additions to the police force have been made possible with the anticipation of income from the meters.

The police force now includes the chief, night captain and seven patrolmen.

W. P. Davis Retires After 47 Years At Postoffice

Veteran Employee, 70, Has Worked Under 6 Different Postmasters

On July 2, 1900, Willard P. Davis began work at the Salem postoffice at the wage of $7.69 per week.

This month, some 47 years later, he is retiring from the postal service at the age of 70.

A great many changes have occurred in the postal system and in the local postoffice since the time Davis first was employed. When he started, only two other clerks, George Mounts and Gusie Haldeman, were employed here. Today 33 clerks are employed.

Mr. Davis began work as a "stamper." This job consisted of hand cancelling letters and other mail matter.

In describing that job, Davis says he grew to be so proficient at the task that he was able to cancel letters faster than a cancelling machine. A test was arranged when the first machine was received in the Salem office, and Davis went through 100 pieces of mail faster than the machine.

The job paid only $400 a year, but that was considered a good wage at the time. Previous to his employment in the postoffice, Davis had worked in Thum's shoe store here and as an embalmer for Daniel Crumrine. As a part of the latter occupation, he had taken an embalming course at what is now the West Penn Medical college in Pittsburgh.

Assistant Postmaster 27 Years
Davis was given promotions in the local postoffice through the years and was made assistant postmaster, a job he now holds, in July, 1920. He became a clerk in 1921 and was appointed superintendent in 1913, prior to reaching his present status.

At the time of his appointment to the local staff in 1900, the Salem postoffice was a second class office. It became first class in 1911.

Davis has worked under six different postmasters—Dr. F. T. Miles, W. S. Atchison, George H. Gee, George H. Mounts, Frank J. Eckstein and A. E. Beardmore, the present postmaster.

"I have gotten along well with all of them," Davis says, "and have been treated fairly through all the years."

He had the opportunity of retiring from the service at the end of 30 years, but decided to continue on until he reached the age limit.

Born on a farm near East Rochester, Davis was the son of David J. and Mary Rebecca Davis. His

CHURCH'S INFLUENCE LAUDED BY SPEAKER

"The church, with all her faults, is the greatest influence for good and morality in the world today," declared Dr. E. W. Bloomquist of Youngstown in an address at a dinner meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood Tuesday evening at Grady's restaurant.

Dr. Bloomquist, who pastors the Baptist temple, discussed church activities in Europe and America.

Places were arranged for 58. David Bevan led the group singing and special music was featured.

Cheaper Steel Later—Maybe

Agreement between United States Steel Corp. and United Steel Workers on a two-year contract based on a 12½-cent-an-hour wage increase, with accompanying benefits sufficient to bring the general average up to more than 15 cents, sets the pace for the 1947 round of industrial contracts. This is approximately the same pattern agreed on between United Electrical Workers and key employers in the electrical industry.

The pattern will be embodied, with minor variations, in hundreds of other contracts, always with the wishful and unofficial proviso that it should be discounted as heavily as possible by increased efficiency of production to keep it from becoming a net addition to wage-rate inflation. Fortunately, that can be done. The prospect at this time is for uninterrupted production in major industries. United Automobile Workers probably will take their cue from United Steel Workers. Even United Mine Workers may be permitted to stay at work this year. As for the only major strike now in progress, that of the telephone workers, it apparently is not wages which are involved in their case so much as issues of organization.

There is one uncertainty in the "big steel" settlement, however. Early this month there were rumors of a reduction in steel prices. Such an announcement, if made, would have had powerful effect on price psychology. It would have been a direct move toward stabilization, because of the prestige and influence of the steel industry.

The public must assume that United States Steel Corp. chose between cutting prices and raising wage rates; and that it saw no merit in a compromise which would have enabled it to do both. Or if the public must assume that the decision lay with United Steel Workers, instead of the corporation, this important union must have been more interested in wage rates than price reduction. In any event, steel prices apparently aren't going to be reduced.

Steel wages now are high—$14.47 an hour on the average in United States Steel, according to President Benjamin P. Fairless. But they are not too high if they permit the public to obtain steel in adequate amounts at a stable price, with hope of reduction in production efficiency warrants. Wages are never too high, unless they cause disproportion in prices. Steel prices are not disproportionately high, though it is an interesting possibility that they might be reduced if the industry's new wage pattern is accompanied by a rise in efficiency of production.

Let's Hope It Works

The consensus is that prices are going to come down. President Truman's advisers have told him a trend will start in 60 to 90 days and continue into 1948, with principal commodities dropping 10 to 25 percent.

Here's what President Truman's advisers say is in prospect: Food costs to drop 20 percent, clothing costs 15 percent, shoe prices 25 to 35 percent, and building materials 25 percent.

Everyone wants lower prices. No one has been heard speaking in defense of present living costs, although many reasons have been offered as to why they are so high. None of the reasons stands up very well under scrutiny. Prices and wages have been playing a little game of turnabout which is going to have to end sometime. Otherwise we shall enter the era of the $35 restaurant meal and the $1 loaf of bread.

The theory is that moral suasion and the law of supply and demand, working in tandem, should be able to bring about price reductions before further damage is done. By speaking out against present prices, the President and leading businessmen, who know a dangerous situation when they see one, hope to create a market of wary buyers. Sales fall off. The pressure eases for still further rounds of wage increases. Prices level off.

That's the way it works on paper and in the economist's mind. If that isn't the way it works in practice, the day is near when nickels, dimes and quarters will become as inconsequential in the monetary scheme as the penny is today.

Patriotism By Lottery

Most selective service registration cards have been dropped in trash baskets or stored in bureau drawers as keepsakes. But military officials have not quit being concerned with selective-service principle.

Secretary of War Patterson has declared that the United States made two great mistakes in World War II. It lacked unified command and a work-or-fight law. Apparently, the secretary failed to find merit in patriotism by lottery, which was the theory of selective service.

Yet the fact is that patriotism by lottery, while it worked extreme hardship on many of the men whose numbers were called, may have brought more essential jobs and qualified men together than could have been done by a work-or-fight law.

Mr. Patterson may be making the classic mistake of federal officials who become obsessed with the possibilities of regimentation. The officials forget that in the United States the alternative of regimentation must have had a great deal to do with the highest rate of wartime production attained by any nation.

The Stars Say

BY GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Thursday, April 24

A particularly lively and probably exciting state of affairs, incident to a sudden, abrupt and dramatic turn of events, reaching deep at the root of plans and objectives is forecast.

Fresh approach to new conditions should be soberly worked out, not only with ingenuity and skill but with an element of the novel, original and basic, in which the culmination may be possibly, far in the future. Final issues depend upon current aims.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of the sudden and unforeseen, with much adventure, change and innovation, the ultimate culmination of such efforts reaching far into the future.

Serious thought and preparation should be given to plans and projects now, to come up for later decision, and having their roots in distant time and probably place. Travel, change, romance, are involved and demand practical rather than emotional or impulsive urges, for happy results.

A child born on this day may have many vital decisions to make in connection with sudden and disruptive turns in the affairs and conditions of a vivid career.

Treatment of a Sore Throat

By HERMAN N. BUNDSEN, M.D.

WITH all our new germ-fighting drugs at hand we are anxious to know which will give the best and quickest results in a given illness.

Take sore throat, for instance. Many times this ailment and tonsillitis as well are due to what is known as the hemolytic streptococcus, a bug which either penicillin or the sulfonamide drugs will attack.

The question both doctor and patient are interested in is whether one will attack it more efficiently and kill it off more quickly than the other.

It is more important to answer it correctly because if these germs once become entrenched, they can cause extensive damage in other and more vital parts of the body.

Definite Information
In order to get definite information about this, Dr. Wesley W. Spink and his co-workers of Minnesota made a study of 114 patients with these conditions who were treated with sulfadiazine or penicillin.

Results obtained were compared with the progress of 102 patients who did not receive these preparations. Nineteen severely ill patients received the sulfadiazine. Thirteen of the nineteen had tonsillitis and six had sore throat.

With this treatment the symptoms were cleared up much more rapidly than in the patients who did not get sulfadiazine. The swelling of the throat tissues as well as the soreness often subsided to a great degree within 12 to 18 hours after treatment had been started.

On the other hand, it did not appear that the sulfadiazine treatment shortened the course of the symptoms, nor did the treatment seem completely to eliminate the streptococcal germs from the throat. That is, after the sickness was over, many of the persons continued to carry the streptococcus germ.

Treated With Penicillin
A total of 95 patients were treated with penicillin. Six of these patients had rheumatic fever, a condition in which there are pain and swelling of the joints and damage to the heart muscle.

It was found that with the penicillin treatment, within 8 to 12 hours after it was started, most of the patients looked and felt better. Other than this it did not appear that the penicillin had any particular effects in either reducing the fever or shortening the course of the sickness.

It would seem also that if large enough doses of penicillin are used the streptococci are completely eliminated from the nose and throat and but few of the patients continue to be carriers of the germs.

It would seem that either sulfadiazine or penicillin is of value in the treatment of tonsillitis and sore throat due to hemolytic streptococci. The physician will decide which of these preparations should be used or if some other sulfonamide preparation may not be desirable.

Letters to Dr. Bundsen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, lousy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good dose of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis which counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

CHOSEN GAS FOR COOKING?

Millions of women have chosen the Gas Range because they know from experience that they can depend on it to do all types of cooking perfectly with a minimum of time, effort and expense.

Consider these facts. Only Gas gives you instant heat and instant shut-off in an almost infinite choice of temperatures for top-burner cooking. Gas, is also the most accurate cooking fuel, assuring you the even, exact heat you need in all parts of your oven for consistently excellent baking and roasting results. Easy-to-clean burners never wear out. All the automatic features are also available — and better — with the new Gas ranges.

Finally, women everywhere are happily aware that Gas, the best cooking fuel, is also the least expensive. So, it's easy to see why women long-experienced with the advantages of Gas cooking are choosing from the latest model Gas ranges to replace their long-faithful but out-dated equipment. Follow their example to satisfaction and savings — see the beautiful new Gas Ranges now on display at your dealer's or at your local Gas company office.

Students' Progress In School Stressed By P. T. A. Speaker

Miss Mary Haddow, director of elementary schools in Youngstown, spoke on "What is Happening to Our Children" at a meeting of the McKinley school Parent-Teacher association Monday evening.

She suggested that, in addition to the elementary three "R's," six more "R's" be added—responsibility, respect, regards, relationship and rectitude or religion and right-thinking.

Miss Haddow said she thought more emphasis should be placed on progress in school than on high grades and promotion.

Alfred Fitch was elected president of the association for the coming year, succeeding A. Hansel. Other officers are: Vice president, Mrs. Alice Zeilers; secretary, Mrs. Albert Ward; and treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Greenwood.

Hansel conducted the meeting and introduced the speaker.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Elmer Kerr and Mrs. Fitch.

The association will give a farewell party for the school's sixth graders May 19.

Demands House Vote Contempt Charges Against Communists

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, April 23—The committee on un-American activities called upon the house today to vote contempt charges against two alleged Communist "conspirators" and upon the attorney general to prosecute Communists who scoff at American laws.

Committee Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) asked for the contempt action against Eugene Dennis, Communist party secretary, and Leon Josephson of New York. He described Josephson as the "official procurer" of false American passports for Communist "functionaries."

Dennis and Josephson both refused to testify to the committee and were held in contempt. Should the house lack the committee, a contempt case can be laid before a grand jury. Conviction carries a maximum punishment of a year in jail plus a $1,000 fine. Thomas wants to increase the penalties.

Lacks Lack of Action
The chairman told the house that witnesses have described Josephson as "more important in the international setup of Communism" than Gerhart Eisler, the "commissar of Communism in the United States." Eisler already is under indictment for contempt of the committee.

"Where has the Department of Justice been for the past 12 years?" Thomas asked.

He said all three of the men he named have been "flagrantly serving as agents of a foreign government" and are leaders of a "conspiratorial organization which is bent upon destroying the United States government."

Dennis, Josephson and Eisler, Thomas said, could have been convicted long ago under laws requiring registration of foreign agents and foreign organizations.

He said that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover knows the Communist party is a "fifth column" loyal to Russia. He said the committee knows it and he "can't understand" why the attorney general doesn't know it.

CAB To Consider Plan For Ohio Feeder Airlines

WASHINGTON, April 23—The Civil Aeronautics board holds a special hearing tomorrow on Ohio's request for extensive feeder line air service.

Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins (R-Ohio), heads a committee of congressmen to present arguments that the state needs such service to connect many communities with cross-country air lines at major centers of population.

The committee was named at meetings called by Jenkins to protest failure of the CAB to authorize feeder lines for the state. He announced the hearing.

Jenkins said the Ohioans would tell the board at the hearing that many important cities are without air transportation to Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and other points having transcontinental air service.

Return $25,000,000 In Treasure To Hungary

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 23.—The United States shipped $25,000,000 worth of Nazi-looted Hungarian silver and art objects back to Budapest Monday in a new gesture of friendship.

One hundred and twenty tons of silver—needed by Hungary to keep her economy on a sound basis—and 370 priceless cultural pieces were returned to the former enemy country under an agreement between the U. S. State department and a Hungarian economic mission.

The precious cargo went to Hungary's capital city aboard a heavily armed U. S. army train which reached Vienna this morning after passing in almost total military secrecy across Germany and Austria.

Faces Two Extra Years In Pen After Escape

LONDON, O., April 23.—Edward Daniel Quinn, 27, of Youngstown, will be returned to Ohio penitentiary to serve an additional two years of his 10-to-20 year term for auto stealing.

Quinn walked away from the Youngstown farm last week with another trusty, Joseph Sooner, 43, of Hillsboro, and was recaptured at Bainbridge, Friday.

Sooner is being held at Greenfield for prosecution in a robbery and assault of an 80-year-old man last week.

Girl Scouts Give Program

Girl Scouts Troop 7, which is sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, provided entertainment at a meeting of the auxiliary Tuesday evening at the home.

Mrs. Chester Kridler, Mrs. Frederick Barckhoff, Jr., and Mrs. James Gregg are troop leaders.

Mrs. Kridler announced the program and Mrs. Barckhoff reviewed the activities of the troop for the past year.

The girls sang two songs and piano solos were contributed by Eleanor and Catherine Everett.

The charter was draped for Mrs. H. P. Litty, oldest member and a past president, who died recently.

Lunch was served at the social period.

The next meeting is set for May 13.

Recalls Old Times

James MacGoogan, manager of the Youngtown club, told about his early days as a member of Quaker City band and his frequent visits to Salem, in a talk before the Rotary club Tuesday.

Born in Scotland, MacGoogan came with his parents to Lisbon, later worked in East Liverpool and for many years resided in Sebring. It was during his Sebring residence that he became a member of the Quaker City band. He was presented to the club by G. R. Deming.

Officers will be elected by the Rotarians next Tuesday. Walter Bailey, superintendent of Salem City hospital, will be the speaker.

His subject, "Hospitals of Yesterday and Tomorrow," will be based on hospital work in general.

Leo Less Signs As Pro Grid Player

Leo Less, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Less of R. D. 5, Salem, has signed a contract to play professional football with the All-American Conference Champion Cleveland Browns. The News learned today.

Less, who graduated from Miami university in February, is employed as a salesman for the Equitable Life Insurance Co., Youngstown.

He graduated in 1940 from Greenford High school, where they don't have scholastic football, and played his first football at Miami. Although he had no high school experience he made Miami's team in his first year.

Less was a star tackle last season and prior to the war and was chosen "Most Valuable Player" twice by his fellow players, in 1941 and again in 1946. He is the only Miami athlete ever to win the award twice.

Coach Paul Brown, general manager of the Cleveland Browns, expects to use Less as a guard. He weighs about 200 pounds and stands six feet two.

Less served as a physical instructor in the Naval reserve, stationed in San Diego, Calif., for three years during the war. He re-entered Miami in 1946.

Salary arrangements for the 25-year old athlete were not released. He is the first professional football player from this section in many years.

New Timken Wage Pact Is Reached

CANTON, April 23—An agreement between the Timken Roller Bearing Co. and the CIO-United Steelworkers of America on wage increases covering about 15,000 workers in five Ohio cities was viewed here today as a harbinger of peace in Timken plants, the scene last year of a bitter 55-day strike.

The wage pact, reached yesterday only a few hours before expiration of an old contract, was contained in an extension of the contract to July 1.

Starting Monday negotiators will take up other provisions of a proposed new contract.

The agreement which went into effect yesterday provides:

A flat 12½ cents hourly wage increase for all hourly employees earning less than $1 an hour.

A 10 percent increase for all hourly workers earning more than $1 an hour and for all incentive workers.

A 10 percent increase also was granted 3,000 salaried employees.

The previous average hourly wage of Timken workers was approximately $1.30, union officials said.

The agreement covers production and maintenance employees in Timken plants in Canton, Columbus, Wooster, Mount Vernon and Zanesville.

Husband of Leetonia Girl Hurt In Blast

LEETONIA, April 23 — Friends have been advised that William Slager, husband of Twila Ludwig Slager, formerly of Leetonia, suffered a fractured back in explosions in Texas City, Tex., last week. He is in a hospital in Galveston, Texas.

Slager, area supervisor and chemist for the Monsanto Chemical Co., which was demolished, was employed by Monsanto in Dayton, before going to Texas City in 1942.

His wife Twila, and their three children, William, aged 9, Cathy, 6, and Tessa, 3, were reported safe.

Slager graduated from Wittenberg college, Springfield, where he majored in Chemistry. Mrs. Slager made her home here with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Webb.

Bride-Elect Feted

Eastern Star Inspection
Annual inspection of Leetonia chapter, OES was held at the Masonic temple Monday evening with Mrs. Gladys Fosnacht of East Palestine, deputy grand matron, as the inspecting officer. A dinner preceded the ceremonies served by the women of Midway grange. More than 150 attended.

Miss Nora Hensler, of Irwin, Pa., spent the weekend with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Riles.

Alliance Teachers Wage Proposal Is Approved
ALLIANCE, April 23—Superintendent R. E. Schafer said today that a new salary schedule, calling for raises that will add $185,000 to the first years' wage cost, has been approved by the Alliance Teachers association and the board of education.

Under the new program, a minimum of $1,800 is set for teachers without experience, but one year of training, and a maximum of $4,000 for teachers of at least 16 years' experience and a master's degree.

The Daniels-Cramer bill, if passed by the state legislature, is counted upon to furnish an estimated $100,000, and the board of education has gone on record to submit a 4-mill salary levy at the November election.

"We buy and pay for half an hour's time from NBC for this program, and that's what we expect to get. Allen was cut off the air for about 35 seconds. So NBC is going to get a bill for the time we didn't get. And, oddly enough, on that Sunday night spot it's a nice little chunk of dough."

NBC, which estimated that the comedian was off the air for about 25 seconds, said that "we asked that certain changes be made in the script, and the changes were not made."

Clay Workers Go Back To Lisbon, Liverpool Jobs
As a result of settlement of an 11-day strike of union clay workers in 22 Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana plants, the American Vitritified Products Company announced today that its 200 employees will return to work in Lisbon and East Liverpool Thursday.

LADY'S ARM WAS BENT UP DOUBLE LIKE A JACK-KNIFE

One lady recently stated that her arm used to become doubled up like a jack-knife. She couldn't move her arm up or down because her muscles were stiff with rheumatic pains and the joints of her elbow and shoulder were swollen. She said she was ashamed to leave her house because people would stare at her. Finally she got RHU-AID and says she now can raise her arm above her head and the swelling left her elbow and shoulder. The awful pain and stiffness is gone. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

RHU-AID contains Three Great Medicinal Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get RHU-AID. Sold by All Drug Stores throughout this section.

WE MIND OUR Q's — AND P's

To our way of thinking, the man who arranged the alphabet put P and Q in the wrong order.

At least we figure that Quality ought to come ahead of Price—though we're well aware of the latter's importance.

So you find us always trying to strike the proper balance between doing a good job and doing an economical one. We try to give you the parts and materials you really need, the time it takes to do things right—and still not waste any of your hard-earned money.

That may not make us the cheapest place in town to buy good service—but we think it makes us the most satisfactory in the long run. Maybe somebody else can shade our costs but we'll guarantee you'll get no better value anywhere, or spend your money more wisely.

The reason we are interested in both Quality and economical Price is because we intend to do our best to grow with this community as your Buick Dealer. We must depend on you being highly satisfied with our service to make that come true—not merely satisfied for today or tomorrow but satisfied as a continuing Buick owner.

We believe you will agree with us that Q comes before P in the service alphabet—come on in and let's talk it over.

DEPARTMENT OF CONJECTURE

Discussion of and decision on softball league regulations and policies by all team managers prior to and during the season may sound like an ideal system for operating softball in Salem, but a lot of folks are beginning to wonder if perhaps some other system of direction might not be more efficient.

Democracy in the operation of the leagues has involved managers meetings for a number of years, at which the team moguls reach decisions as to just what rules shall be used in games, how players shall be regulated and signed up, etc.

This year the debates and decisions have been more far reaching. The problems, with the expansion of the leagues, grow also. Now such things as the uniforms, required for pitchers, the length of spikes on softball shoes, who actually owns the uniforms, etc., are involving endless and somewhat tiresome discussions that are actually leading to few decisions.

Whether or not Joe Kelley, as league manager, should not have the power to either make all decisions and regulations on his own, or appoint a board of directors (small enough to be useful and efficient as well as representative) to do the rule-making is a moot question.

It has been suggested to Joe that he do just that and if the current lengthy deliberations and confusions continue in league meetings, it may become a reality.

The managers have a tendency to adopt a blanket set of rules and then almost methodically set about amending them one by one. Player regulations, unless definitely established are practically useless and it seems almost impossible that the managers will meet a happy medium in these regulations at the meeting Thursday at the Memorial building.

The size of the Class A leagues alone here now cries out for good sound organization and Joe may be forced to take things into his own hands to achieve that.

Softball Managers Set Regulations Thursday

Managers of Salem's Class A softball leagues will meet with Joe Kelley at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Thursday for a final discussion of league rules and player regulations before the opening around May 6.

Kelley reminded managers today that Thursday closes the entry for the A leagues. After tomorrow no new teams can be entered in the top ranking loop. Class B entries will remain open for a time.

Locals Rally But Spartans Win In Mile Relay Ends Hope For Victory 64½-53½

Salem's Quakers gave Boardman's Spartans a run for their money at Rely stadium Tuesday afternoon but dropped a thrilling meet 64½ to 53½ after nearly overtaking the Spartans in a late event spurt.

Boardman racked up eight firsts to Salem's six and was blessed with an impressive 20 point margin after six events. But Salem rallied and took three firsts and a pair of seconds, plus a third or two, to narrow the margin to 53½ to 46½, with but two events remaining.

By capturing all three places in the broad jump and the mile relay the Quakers could have won.

Only first and second came Salem way in the jump event, however, and the mile relay team finished well behind the Spartan outfit to clinch the meet.

Outstanding yesterday for Salem was Glenn Thorne with victories in the mile run and the half mile, which may be his specialty from here on.

The lanky Senior had posted a very fine 2:07.8 minutes in the half, an excellent time in any meet. His

ZARILLA'S LAZY SINGLE SPOILS BOB'S NO-HITTER

Feller Says He's Not Out For Strikeouts, But Still Gets 'Em

CLEVELAND, April 23 — Fresh from the ninth one-hitter of his brilliant career, Rapid Robert Feller of the Cleveland Indians served notice on American league sluggers today that he isn't aiming for strikeouts—but it's still a good way to get batters out.

A lazy liner from Al Zarilla's bat dropped into center field in the seventh inning at Lakeland stadium yesterday to rob the major league strikeout king of his third no-hitter as Feller mowed down the St. Louis Browns for a 5-0 victory.

Switching from his baffling assortment of curves to a hopping fast ball, Feller handcuffed the Browns the rest of the way to break his own record for one-hitters with a near-perfect performance in which only 29 St. Louis batters reached the plate.

Joe Gordon's three-run homer gave Bob all the margin he needed.

One of the game's all-time hurling stars, Jerome (Dizzy) Dean wound up his radio sportscasting and muttered: "Bobby Feller was unbeatable out there today."

"That was the finest game I have ever seen pitched by a right-hander," Diz elaborated. "That Feller ranks at the top of the pitching heap. There may be other fingers as good—but there are none better."

Another Feller rooster, Indians President Bill Veeck, shivered under his tropical suit in the 45-degree temperature and declared: "That was the finest game I have ever seen pitched—period."

Between dressing room rubdowns, the smiling Feller explained that Zarilla, stocky native of Los Angeles who batted only .259 last year, reached outside for a "change-of-pace curve, that would have been called a ball 'to slap his spoiler' to center."

"I threw mostly curves today and they were breaking fine in the damp atmosphere—but from there on, I decided to blaze 'em in," said Rapid Robert, adding, "I struck out Zarilla in the first and fourth with fast balls, but he's always a dangerous hitter."

Expressing surprise when informed he had struck out 10, Feller asserted, "I didn't realize I had fanned that many. I wasn't aiming for strikeouts—but it's still a good way to get batters out."

Crediting the "atmosphere and my new electric heating jacket" for his phenomenal control, Feller issued his only walk in 17 innings to Les Moss, leading off for St. Louis in the ninth.

Dry content of a kernel of corn is 80 per cent carbohydrate.

Made the Browns Look Drab

Bob Feller, after pitching the ninth one-hit game of his career, beating the St. Louis Browns 5 to 0 at Cleveland, points to what must be a lucky spot on Joe Gordon's bat—Gordon helped with a three-run homer.

Unusual All-Ohio College Teams Selected By Tutors

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, April 23—The most unusual All-Ohio college basketball team in history emerged today as ballots cast by the state's coaches for the Associated Press honorary selections were tabulated.

Three Sophomores and two Juniors were awarded first team berths on the All-Ohio squad, while two Sophomores, two Juniors and a lone Senior won the top spots on the All-Ohio Conference quintet.

With Miami's Bob Brown pacing the pack at center with 437 points in 22 games, the first All-Ohio team counted 1916 points in 23 contests for an average of 83 per tilt—certainly a dream combination for any coach.

Teamed with the scintillating Brown, who won the first team captaincy, were Fritz Nagy of Akron and Bill Herman of Mount Union at forwards, and Charley Buttermore of Wesleyan and Gene Fellmeth of Wittenberg at guards.

Only Senior to make either of the big teams was Capital's Dick Ott, who paced the Lutherans to the state and Ohio Conference championships with his great floor play and his 332 points in 18 games. Ott won the All-Conference center job, for which Brown was not eligible.

Larry Kukura of Muskingum moved into the first team guard spot on the All-Conference, Buttermore not being eligible for a league spot, and Nagy, Herman and Fellmeth took the remaining positions to annex double honors. Nagy captained the All-Conference quintet.

Boyle's COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—One of the best kept secrets of the South is the secret of southern cooking.

A casual traveler through the land of cotton, peanuts and the moss-hung pine is likely to emerge with the disillusioning conviction: "There's no such thing as southern cooking."

This is because there are two types of southern cooking. The kind you find in the average restaurants and the kind you get in a good southern home. It's only in the latter that you are likely to enjoy the kitchen-born "southern fried hospitality" you seek.

When a southern lady really turns to her skillet and oven, she can dish up plates that would make a French gourmet go home and turn his famed portrait of escoffier to the wall. She can turn out cornmeal "huge puppies" that leave white bread as insipid as the memory of a mouthful of fog.

Her fried chicken is as crisp as a military command, as tender as a high school girl's first love poem. She can do things with country ham that stir a man to idolatry and a desire to burn votive candles. She is the only woman in the world who has had the good sense to know that fine old bourbon whiskey, like old sherry wine, is a benison in the kitchen. She uses it to flavor many wonderful dishes.

But the romance of southern cooking is strictly home-grown. Dining out is another story. The South has many renowned restaurants but they are only scattered oases.

This isn't just the opinion of one visiting "damn Yankee." In fact the restaurants are about the only thing below the Mason-Dixon line that an outsider can criticize without stirring the native sons to instantaneous rebuttal.

"Most of our restaurants are pretty bad," they mournfully agree.

Bachelors lead a sorry life everywhere, but in the South they must be cast iron men indeed. Nobody but a man raised in the steel traditions of Stonewall Jackson could graze three times a day in the average small southern restaurant and long endure.

For many restaurants seem to feel they've done their duty when they slap a plate before you containing:

(1) A soggy pork chop greased as if it were about to try to swim the English channel;

(2) A hump of tired canned peas;

(3) A spreading white gelatinous horror, called "grits," flavorless as warmed-over snow, which leaves you feeling like a maddened bottle of library paste.

The plate is preceded by a glass of fruit juice-canned, yes, even in Florida it's served from a can—and followed by a slab of apple pie plated with damp wallboard.

A case could be made for these restaurants in that they indubitably drive many reluctant men into matrimony, thus creating more families and benefiting the nation.

But when a hungry man drops in for a meal he usually doesn't have a long term social view in mind. He's just trying to placate an empty stomach.

Pass the fried magnolia, mammy!

Priest Wounded As He Performs Communion

(By Associated Press)

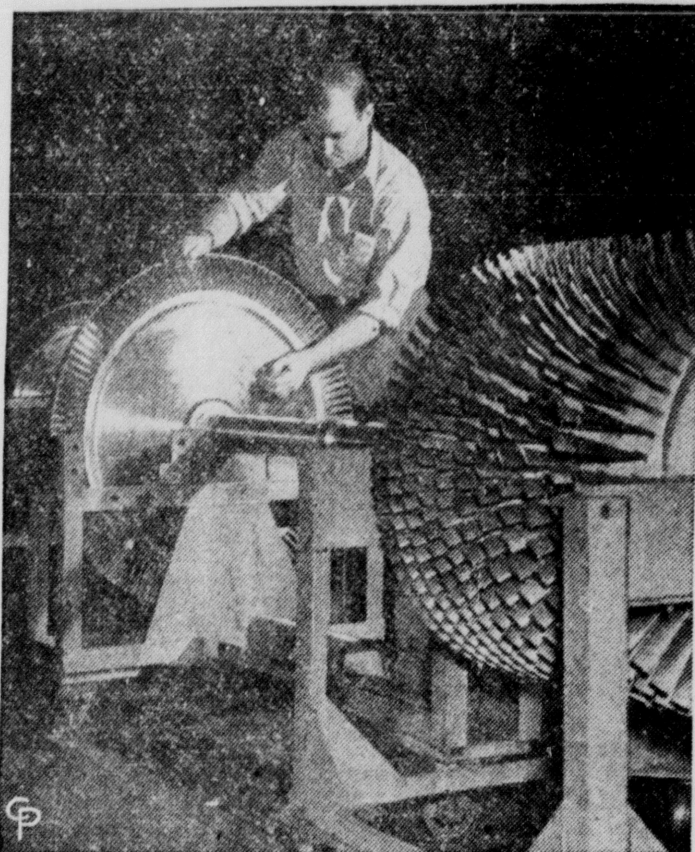

NEW ORLEANS, April 22—Slashed and stabbed as he bent toward his kneeling assailant to minister the sacrament of Holy Communion, the Rev. James W. Courtney, 46-year-old Catholic priest, was in "fair" condition today at Mercy hospital.

The sudden and unexplained attack, which the priest made no attempt to ward off as he sought to protect the ciborium he held, occurred at Sunday High Mass in the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

His assailant, identified by Police Sgt. Clarence Molinero as Don Louis Laurentz, 27, was jailed on a charge of aggravated battery.

Molinero said identification cards bore the man's name and addresses at Houston and Beaumont, Tex.
